March 2, 2014

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship. An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name on it, you may fill out a request form on the Welcome Table or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the infant nursery on the first floor and the Pre-K nursery on the lower-level.

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, will not meet today, the first Sunday of the month, so that children may be with the congregation for the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Preparing for worship... Please silence cell phones upon entering the sanctuary. The need may arise for you to exit the service early. If so, please refrain from exiting during prayers, reading of scripture and choral anthems. Natural and appropriate exit points are during congregational hymns or sung responses. Your courtesy is appreciated. Also, as a kindness to fellow worshippers, please do not take flash photos during the worship service.

Ushering for today's worship: (8:45) Craig Graber & Patrick Murphy (11:00) Sharon Barnes, Bryan & Laura Eikmann, Bill & Martha Lamey, Randy & Sylvia Malta, Kay McCarthy.

PSALTER

Psalm 139, selections

O LORD, you have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
you discern my thoughts from far away.
You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.
Even before a word is on my tongue, O LORD,
you know it completely.
You hem me in, behind and before,
and lay your hand upon me...
Where can I go from your spirit?

Or where can I flee from your presence?
If I ascend to heaven, you are there;
    if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.
If I take the wings of the morning
    and settle at the farthest limits of the sea,
even there your hand shall lead me,
    and your right hand shall hold me fast.
If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me,
    and the light around me become night,"
even the darkness is not dark to you;
    the night is as bright as the day,
    for darkness is as light to you...
How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!
I try to count them—they are more than the sand;
I come to the end—I am still with you. Amen.

Congregation: Take the Alleluia from us.

Take down the colors of rejoicing and replace them with purple,
the color of penitence and preparation.

If we are to rise with Christ, we must die to our old selves.

The Alleluia banner is removed and the paraments are changed to purple.

The Alleluia is gone. The colors of joy are put away.
No more shall our hearts sing Alleluia until that day when our Christ is raised Son of God in power.

We wait and count the days.

Watch and pray.

Watch and pray that we will not enter into temptation.

Watch and pray that we will be found ready when our Christ returns.

PRAYER

*BLESSING & CHARGE

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you, this day and forevermore.

Amen.

We have worshiped our God and been reminded of all that the Lord has done for us.
Go from this place to share the love of God.

We have put away the Alleluia,
for there is a time for everything,
and we prepare ourselves for the mystery of Christ's passion.
It is the time to consider the depths of God's love and human sinfulness—and how God's love is triumphant.

Go in peace.

Thanks be to God.

---

*Please rise in body or spirit.

+ Those arriving may be seated.

FAQs about Worship

Why do we "bury" the alleluias at the start of Lent?

What we do with alleluias only makes sense in context with the larger meaning of Lent. So let's start there. Lent arrives each year as the earth prepares to awaken from its winter slumber. So, too, does the church prepare itself for renewal in the springtime of Christ's resurrection. Lent is about the church recovering its center in the dying and rising of Christ as well as preparing candidates being called by God to the waters of baptism. In short, we all learn again how deep is our hunger for God. Marking this spiritual journey are faith practices: communion with God, restraint from excess, and generous sharing. We know these practices as prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. When we bury alleluias at the start of Lent, we begin a "fast" from using a word which is pungent with the fragrance of Easter. Like seed planted in the soil, we put away our alleluias until that time (at the Great Vigil of Easter) when their return to the liturgy trumpets the glory of the resurrection. So, on Transfiguration Sunday, we sing an entire feast of alleluias and, then, with reverence and joy, place them in a "coffin" for 40 days.

SPOTLIGHT ON MISSIONS

OASIS Update: What a wonderful opportunity we embraced on Souper Bowl Sunday! The youth of our church challenged all of us to donate food products and money for the OASIS food pantry. We collected 402 cans and $370 for OASIS. Thank you all for your generosity and your Christian spirit of caring for others.

Angel Tree Update: Last December, the Deacons sponsored three families and gift ideas for them were attached to our "angel tree" for the congregation to purchase. Thanks to all of you who were able to help. We made Christmas a bit brighter for three families which included four adults and eight children under the age of ten. Approximately 75 gifts were purchased for our "angel" families and the gifts ranged from socks to iPods to rent assistance. It's hard to gauge the amount of money that was spent to sponsor our "angel" families, but rest assured that those children and their parents thanked us through their smiles and tears of joy. What a blessed Christmas ministry that the Deacons encourage and that the congregation responds with amazing generosity. Thank you!
