WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

We welcome back to our 11:00 worship service today, the women's vocal ensemble, Alegria, which is the Spanish word for joy. Alegria is made up of Lindsay LaMarche, Judy Hodge, Glenda Schmitt, Jeanine Denton, Kathy Kuehnle, and accompanist, Carol Koeppe.

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship. An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name on it, you may fill out a request form in the Outreach & Information Center in the foyer or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the nursery on the first floor (Room 204). At the 11:00 service, child care for infants and toddlers will be in Room 204; Pre-K children will be in the Butterfly Room in the lower-level.

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, is available during the 11:00 service. Children who wish to participate will be dismissed after the Gospel Reading. They will exit by the side (north) door and be escorted to the lower-level.

Preparing for worship... Please silence cell phones upon entering the sanctuary. The need may arise for you to exit the service early. If so, please refrain from exiting during prayers, reading of scripture and choral anthems. Natural and appropriate exit points are during congregational hymns or sung responses. Your courtesy is appreciated. Also, as a kindness to fellow worshippers, please do not take flash photos during the worship service.

Ushering for today's worship: (8:45) Michael Black, Cindy Martin, Jim & Debbie Phillips.
(11:00) Craig Clarke, Kirk Garten, Bill & Linda Judd, Kristin Judd, Debbie McDanel, Joe Seidler.

VENI EMMANUEL

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems. The first system has two staves: a vocal line in G4 and a piano accompaniment in G3. The lyrics are: "O come, thou root of Jesse, free thine own from Satan's tyranny; from O come, thou Key of David, come, and open wide our heavenly home; make". The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment with lyrics: "depths of hell thy people save and give them victory o'er the grave. safe the way that leads on high, and close the path to misery." The third system is labeled "Refrain" and has lyrics: "Re-joice! Re-joice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel." The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.

God our Maker, we confess

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

O ANTIPHONS

The season of Advent is characterized by waiting in expectant hope for the coming of the Savior at Christmas. That waiting and expectancy is revealed in the O Antiphons, a litany for the season of Advent with a recurring cry of “Come, Lord Jesus.” The O Antiphons are so named because each of them begins with the interjection “O.” Of uncertain origin, they were in use by the eighth century, and were highly regarded during the Middle Ages. Making use of Old Testament images as descriptors of Christ, the O Antiphons were sung before and after the chanting of the Magnificat (Mary’s song, Luke 1:46-55) in evening prayer during the last week of Advent, from December 17th through 23rd. The first letters of the key Latin words—Sapientia (Wisdom), Adonai (Lord), Radix Jesse (Root of Jesse), Clavis David (Key of David), Oriens (Sunrise), Rex Gentium (King of Nations), and Emmanuel (God with us)—when read backward, spell “Ero cras,” “I shall be there tomorrow,” that is, on December 24th.

New Hope member Bob Dencker has created paintings depicting each of the O Antiphons, which will appear over the course of the season of Advent. Today’s paintings depict the third and fourth of the O Antiphons—O Root of Jesse (Isaiah 11:1, 10) and O Key of David (Isaiah 22:22).

† THE LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLES

In the ancient world, various peoples lit fires to mark the turning of the light into winter’s season and to pray for the return of the light. The church has Christianized that practice in the lighting of the Advent wreath. To us, these candles are signs of the growing light of Christ who is coming again in all fullness into the darkness of our world. Until the dawning of that great day, we watch and wait in the Holy Spirit for Christ’s coming into the darkness of our world, lighting candles to symbolize hope, peace, joy, and love, and remembering the promises of God with prayer.

MUSIC NOTES

Today's hymn Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus was written by Charles Wesley (1707-1788). As a young man, Wesley pursued a master's degree at Oxford. To counteract the lack of spiritual atmosphere at the university, Charles and a few others formed the "Holy Club," in which they systematically attempted to live holy lives. They received Communion every week, fasted regularly, abstained from most forms of amusement and luxury, and frequently visited the sick, the poor, and prisoners. Because of these activities, members of the club were nicknamed, rather derisively, "Methodists." Following his graduation, Wesley was ordained in the Anglican church. Charles Wesley is widely considered one of the greatest English-language hymn writers, not only for his prolific output of over 6000 hymns, but for the outstanding literary quality of his work. Many of his hymns remain, more than 200 years after their composition, well-known and beloved. O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing, Hark! the Herald Angels Sing, Rejoice, the Lord Is King, Love Divine, All Loves Excelling, and Jesus, Lover of My Soul are but a few of his commonly-sung hymns.
