Great Vigil of Easter
7:45 p.m....page 14

Our celebration of these holy days is made possible by the gifts of time and talent: the ministry of liturgists, Elders and Deacons, the choir, children, tenders of the new fire, bearers of the paschal candle, cantors, instrumentalists, greeters and ushers, bell ringers, readers, staplers and folders of bulletins, bakers of communion bread, sound folk and many others taking up roles large and small. Thanks to all!

We welcome all who worship together over these three days, particularly those who are new to our assembly and we invite you to join fully in our worship and fellowship. Your unique gifts can enrich our effort to reach out in prayer and service to our congregation, our community and the world.

COMMENTARY ON THE TRIDUUM

All of Holy Week points toward the passion—the death and resurrection of Christ. The week’s three final days (from sunset Thursday through sunset on Easter) complete the commemoration of Christ’s passion. These three days are called the Triduum (Latin for “three days”).

The Triduum engages us from Thursday until Sunday in a unified act. What happens on Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil forms a continuous dramatic story. These days are to be seen together rather than separately. The services of the three final days of Holy Week connect with one another and, together, comprise the oneness of the Triduum.

Because of this interrelationship of the three days, each service of the Triduum needs the others to tell the whole story. For example, the resurrection is incomprehensible without Christ’s self-giving in the Lord’s Supper and the Crucifixion. Therefore, Easter needs Good Friday and Maundy Thursday to be fully understood. The way to the triumph of Easter is through the Triduum.

All of Holy Week, and particularly its three concluding days (the Triduum), provides an opportunity to undertake a pilgrimage of renewed commitment and joy; to travel Christ’s path of servanthood; through the Lord’s Supper and the suffering of the cross, as we move toward Easter.

Our joy during the great festival of resurrection will be enhanced by faithful participation in worship during the preceding week, especially during the whole of the Triduum.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

This day in Holy Week is traditionally referred to as “Holy Thursday” or “Maundy Thursday.” The word “maundy” is derived from the Latin “Mandatum” which means “command” and refers to the new commandment to love one another which Jesus gave to the disciples at the Last Supper, the night before his death (John 13:34). The congregation gathers this evening to remember that night so long ago when our Lord broke the bread and gave the cup and so instituted this holy supper which has been for more than 1900 years, the Church's holiest occasion of communion and celebration. The mood of the service is not triumphant but somber and reflective as we recall the eve of Jesus' passion and death. At the same time, there is also unmistakably present the note of faith and hope, even as there was on that first Maundy Thursday. So do we as the Church once more gather with our Lord to prepare for his suffering and death but also to anticipate the glory of his resurrection which we will celebrate on Easter.

Once again this year, we will include the Liturgy of Footwashing as a part of our worship on this night. Just as ashes are a central symbol of the meaning of Ash Wednesday, so the act of footwashing is a central symbol of the meaning of Maundy Thursday. Footwashing is a powerfully symbolic response to Jesus' own example and his command that his disciples love one another as he loves us.

Following the sermon, worshipers will be invited to proceed to one of three stations located around the worship space to have their feet washed. Once a person's feet are washed, he or she will turn and wash the next person's feet. This is an intimate experience of servanthood that Jesus demonstrates for us. Many may choose not to participate because it asks us to be vulnerable. We don't like to expose our feet in public. We hide them, cover them and dress them. But to have one's feet washed, and to wash others, is to cross boundaries of intimacy. By doing so, however, we ritually embody the sort of servanthood Jesus asks us to show toward one another.

This is completely voluntary. No one will be compelled to participate. Like the whole of our liturgy, no one is ever forced to engage in particular acts of worship. Rather, the footwashing is a both a gift and a challenge that is meant to pull us out of our comfort zones. You may choose to participate or not. During the footwashing, the congregation will sing the song, Live in Charity, a prayerful, meditative song based on the ancient Latin hymn, Ubi Caritas. Another hymn to be included is This Is the Night.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Good Friday service is a penitential service that allows for much contemplation and for the power of silence to speak for itself. The passion narrative will be presented through the choir and organ presenting John Stainer's oratorio, The Crucifixion.

THE GREAT VIGIL OF EASTER

On the final night of this Easter journey we pause in vigil, at which time we remember stories about who we have been and are now becoming. As the community of faith we recount our centuries-long pilgrimage culminating in the renewal of baptismal promises. The Easter Vigil is akin to sitting around a campfire while listening to the stories of generations past and future. During the Easter Vigil, we tell our name to ourselves and to those not of the household of faith. Our name is a very long story of how we were made, of how God chose us from among all peoples, of how God liberated us from bondage, of how God planted us in the promised land, of how, in these last times, God has given the story a new twist in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Because we have been here for so long, it takes a long time to tell who we are. We will not be hasty folk on that night.

EASTER SUNDAY, April 5, 8:45 & 11:00 a.m.

STRIPPING OF THE CHURCH

℣ The candles are extinguished and all linens and paraments are removed from the worship space. The congregation will pray in silence. The symbolism of darkness and bareness honor the willingness of Jesus to be stripped and killed for us. From Thursday evening until Easter, hope seems to be lost and evil seems to have beaten God's Son. We gather in this silent emptiness to share in the communion of our Lord, to try to grasp the gift God gives us, and to follow Christ not just to Easter, but through the pain and darkness of Friday and Saturday.

DEPART IN SILENCE

℣ Since our worship does not end tonight, but continues on through Good Friday to Easter, there is no benediction. After the Stripping of the Church, you may stay for meditation and, when you are ready, please depart in silence.

and may find mercy in all times of need. Amen.

*OPENING SENTENCES & PRAYER OF THE DAY

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING Isaiah 52:13 – 53:12

PSALTER Psalm 22:1-18, 25-31

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Why are you so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning?

O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer;
and by night, but find no rest.

Yet you are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.

In you our ancestors trusted;
they trusted, and you delivered them.

To you they cried, and were saved;
in you they trusted, and were not put to shame.

But I am a worm, and not human;
scorned by others, and despised by the people.

All who see me mock at me,
they make mouths at me, they shake their heads;

“Commit your cause to the Lord;
let him deliver – let him rescue the one in whom he delights!”

Yet it was you who took me from the womb;

you kept me safe on my mother's breast.

On you I was cast from my birth, and since my mother bore me, you have been my God.

Do not be far from me,
for trouble is near and there is no one to help.

Many bulls encircle me,
strong bulls of Bashan surround me;

they open wide their mouths at me,
like a ravening and roaring lion.

I am poured out like water and all my bones are out of joint;
my heart is like wax,
it is melted within my breast;

my mouth is dried up like a potsherd,
and my tongue cleaves to my jaws;
you lay me in the dust of death.

For dogs are all around me;
a company of evildoers encircles me.
My hands and feet have shriveled;
I can count all my bones.

They stare and gloat over me;
they divide my clothes among themselves,
and for my clothing, they cast lots.

From you comes my praise in the great congregation;
my vows I will pay before those who fear the Lord.

The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall praise the Lord!
May your hearts live forever!

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord;
and all the families of the nations shall worship before the Lord.

For dominion belongs to the Lord who rules over the nations.

To God, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down;
before God shall bow all who go down to the dust,
and I shall live for God.

Posterity shall serve the Lord;
future generations will be told about the Lord;
and proclaim God's deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that God has done it.

PSALM PRAYER

Amen.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

YOU BELONG TO CHRIST

During the singing, worshipers who wish may come to the font, reach into the water and receive a "water bead" to take with you as a reminder that the baptized life is a life of continually "living wet," of living more fully into a life that grows out of the paschal mystery of Christ's own life, death and resurrection. If you have not received the Sacrament of Baptism and would like to learn more about it, Pastor James would welcome the opportunity to speak with you.

Do you intend to continue in the covenant
God made with you in holy baptism:

to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed,
to serve all people, following the example of Jesus,
and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth?

I do, and I ask God to help and guide me.

People of God,
do you promise to support and pray for one another in your life in Christ?
