PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (USA)

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

We welcome back to our pulpit today the Rev. Joy Myers. Before entering seminary, Joy spent several years in teaching. She holds a bachelor's and master's degree in education, both from Northern Illinois University. A graduate of McCormick Theological Seminary, Joy served the Fox Valley Presbyterian Church in Geneva, IL until 2006, when she came to serve the First Presbyterian Church, Edwardsville, IL. Joy has served the Presbyterian Church (USA) at all levels, including as Moderator of the Blackhawk Presbytery and Vice-Moderator of the Committee on Polity and Ordered Ministry of the General Assembly. Joy currently serves as the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Giddings-Lovejoy.

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship. An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name on it, you may fill out a request form on the Information Table or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the nursery on the first floor (Room 204). At the 11:00 service, child care for infants and toddlers will be in Room 204; Pre-K children will be in the Butterfly Room in the lower-level.

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, is available during the 11:00 service. Children who wish to participate will be dismissed after the Gospel Reading. They will exit by the side (north) door and be escorted to the lower-level.

Ushering for today's worship: Jerry & Rhonda Dyer, Margo VanMill, Kim Carr, Mel Fairchild, Bill & Ruth Reilly.

Flowers: To the glory of God and in honor of Lauren Garten on her birthday, given by Kirk & Deb Garten.

Liturgist: Elder Bill Lamey

Sound Booth: Jim Pettit

This prayer is offered as an aid to help worshipers center the heart and mind for worship.*

God of strength and courage,
in Jesus Christ you set us free from sin and death,
and call us to the risk of faith and service.
Give us grace to follow him
who gave himself for others,

we may find the life he came to bring. Amen.

Into our wilderness, God comes and says,
"Do not be afraid for I have heard your voice."

and into the light of faith we come, O God.

When we ask for a sign of love, God comes and provides all that we need.

Out of the shadows of fear
and into the light of faith we come, O God.

The old ways have been put to death and we are made alive with Christ.

Out of the shadows of fear
and into the light of faith we come, O God.

Jesus says, "Those who find their life will lose it,
and those who lose their life for my sake will find it."

Out of the shadows of fear
and into the light of faith we come, O God.
Come, let us worship in faith our faithful God.

*HYMN 530

One Bread, One Body

ONE BREAD, ONE BODY

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH—from the Confession of Belhar

We believe in the triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who gathers, protects and cares for the church through Word and Spirit. This, God has done since the beginning of the world and will do to the end.

We believe in one holy, universal Christian church, the communion of saints called from the entire human family....

We believe that God has revealed God's self as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people;

that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged that God calls the church to follow God in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry;

that God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind;

that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly;

that for God pure and undefiled religion is to visit the orphans and the widows in their suffering;

that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right;
that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things, that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an every-flowing stream;
that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands,
namely against injustice and with the wronged;
that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others....

We believe Jesus is Lord.

To the one and only God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be the honor and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYERS OF JOY & CONCERN

...Hear us, O God:

your mercy is great.

...Into your hands we place the welfare of all for whom we pray.

We trust in your mercy; through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

THE EUCHARIST

OFFERING OF OURSELVES & OUR GIFTS

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

THE INVITATION

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING & THE LORD'S PRAYER

May the Spirit of Christ be with you...

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

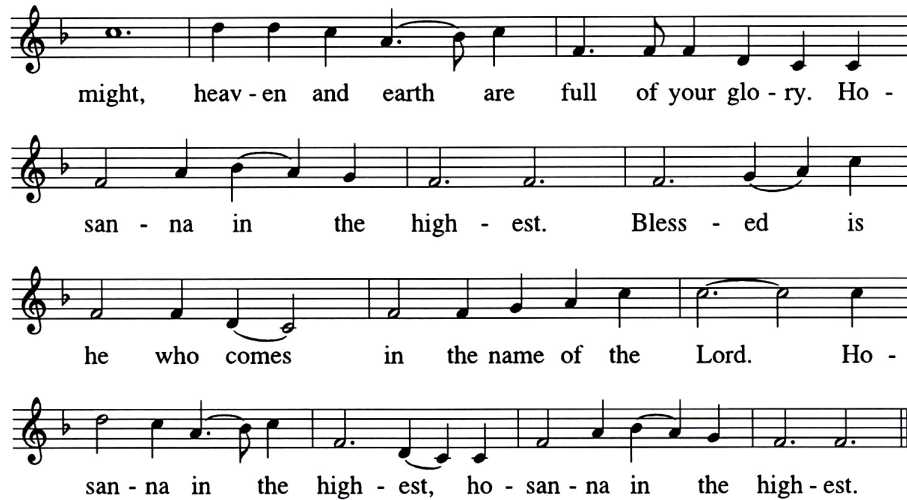

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The prayer continues. After the words, "... who forever sing to the glory of your name:" the congregation sings, might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

The prayer continues...

...may the strength and compassion of Jesus continue to stir our hearts,
so as to help make whole the world of God's making.

We pray for God's rule on earth, as Jesus taught us,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory,
forever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

☞Coming to the Table—Ushers will invite worshipers to the Lord's Table by rows. All the baptized may come to the Table at the center and return by the outside aisles.

☞Receiving the elements—You may take the bread, dip it into the chalice and partake of both together (intinction), or you may partake of the bread first, and then proceed to partake of the juice separately from the tray of individual cups. Gluten-free bread is available with Pastor Myers from the plate in her left hand.

PRAYER AFTER THE MEAL

Spirit of Christ, Spirit of Life,
come and bless what we have done here.
May our eating and our drinking in the love of God,
broaden the way we think—deepen the way we feel,
and send us out with renewed confidence
into the world of your continued weaving...
for the invitation of heaven is everywhere.
Thanks be to God. Amen.

Let us go out to our ministries, confident that God is with us.

In the details...

The banner to the left of the chancel represents the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time. "Ordinary" is not to connote "mundane," but refers rather to the counting of the days using ordinal numbers (first, second, third, etc.). The whole of the church year can be understood to be an annual rehearsal of the history of salvation as seen in the birth, life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ to new life. Ordinary Time consists of those days outside of the major festival seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter. This is the time when scriptures about Jesus' life and ministry are read in worship, when our life in the church is marked by spiritual growth, which gives reason for the color of ordinary time (green for growth).

In the banner, the Alpha (A) and Omega (Ω) are the first and last letters, respectively, of the Greek alphabet (the original language of the New Testament). Taken together, they represent God's sacred time which spans between the beginning of time at creation and the ending of time at the consummation of all that is. Jesus said, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end" (Revelation 22:13). Chronos, secular, human time is designated by the sundial.
