WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship.

An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name on it, you may fill out a request form on the Information Table or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the nursery on the first floor (Room 204). At the 11:00 service, child care for infants and toddlers will be in Room 204; Pre-K children will be in the Butterfly Room in the lower-level.

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, will not meet today, the first Sunday of the month, so that children may be with the congregation for the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

Preparing for worship... Please silence cell phones upon entering the sanctuary. The need may arise for you to exit the service early. If so, please refrain from exiting during prayers, reading of scripture and choral anthems. Natural and appropriate exit points are during congregational hymns or sung responses. Your courtesy is appreciated. Also, as a kindness to fellow worshippers, please do not take flash photos during the worship service.

Ushering for today's worship: (8:45) Carolyn Doerr, Patrick Murphy, Susan Petrowsky.

(11:00) Sharon Barnes, Bryan & Laura Eikmann, Bill Lamey & Martha Lamey, Randy & Sylvia Malta.

*THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

This earth, O God, is our home, built by your Word and your breath.
Made alive by you, we come to know you
and to know ourselves as your people.

We give you thanks.

We drink your cooling waters.

We give you thanks.

We see your rivers, lakes, and oceans lush with creatures large and small,
food for the eye and for our nourishment.

We give you thanks.

We bathe and are refreshed in the waters you have made.

We give you thanks.

Now gathered at baptismal water,
a sign of your unending mercy,
we praise you for the gift of your Son who
in his life, death, resurrection, and ascension embraced the world,
calling us to proclaim the good news that welcomes all people.

Make us one in you.

We praise you for the gift of prayer
that allows us to hear you speak in our midst and gives us words when we are speechless with joy.

Make us one in you.

We praise you for the waters that bring us to this day,
to celebrate a new and renewed life in your name.

Make us one in you.

Come, Holy Spirit,
into your people,
through the holy Word,
by waters blessed.

To you be all honor, glory, and gratitude,
through Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
now and forever.

Amen.

The Season of Eastertide

The paintings of the Exodus story in the chancel, depicting God as the pillar of fire by night and the pillar of cloud by day, leading the Israelites through the Red Sea from slavery to freedom, are original pieces by Bob Dencker for New Hope's 2016 and 2017 Great Vigil of Easter, respectively. Just as the Resurrection of Christ is the faith-defining story of Christianity at the heart of the New Testament, the Exodus is the faith-defining story of Judaism at the heart of the Old Testament. For Christians, the Paschal candle becomes our pillar of fire and the waters of the baptismal font become our local Red Sea, as we are led from slavery to the old life of sin to the freedom of being united to Christ's own life of love, peace and justice.

The new white paraments, (the covering on the Lord's Table, pulpit hanging and bookmark) are the gifts and handiwork of Leigh Lindahl-Truett. Many thanks to Leigh for her generosity!

During the season of Eastertide, New Hope is observing the practice of replacing the Prayer of Confession with a prayer of Thanksgiving for Baptism. Following the penitential season of Lent, one way to celebrate Easter is to forgo the practice of corporate confession and give thanks for the new life that Easter brings and the Sacrament of Baptism signifies. Also during Eastertide, New Hope is reading from the Acts of the Apostles as the First Scripture Reading in worship. The Acts of the Apostles is the record of the growth of the early church in the first century after the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ. It is a moving testimony to how the Christian community lives in response to the earth-shattering reality that happened at Easter.

Why do we call that tall candle the "Paschal" candle and what does it mean?

"Pascha" comes from the Hebrew word for "Passover," the central festival for the Jewish people in which the Hebrews celebrate their deliverance from slavery in Egypt to freedom in the land of Canaan. On the night before their deliverance through the Red Sea to freedom, the Lord instructed the people to kill a lamb and spread the blood on the doorposts of their homes. That night, the Lord would pass through the land of Egypt and kill the firstborn of every home, but would pass over the homes that had the blood of the lamb on the doorposts, thereby sparing the Hebrews the punishment exacted upon the Egyptians (Exodus 12). We read this story in our worship every year on Maundy Thursday.

For us Christians, Christ is our "paschal lamb" who was sacrificed that we might be delivered from slavery to sin to the freedom of life in communion with God and one another. God completed that work with the Resurrection of Christ. So the fullness of Easter, lived out in our worship over the three days from Maundy Thursday to Easter is the Christian Passover, or Pascha. The Paschal Candle is lighted at the Great Vigil of Easter, in which we proclaim that the light of Christ shines in the darkness of sin and death to give light to the world. The candle remains lit throughout the Great Fifty Days of Easter through Pentecost, and then is again lighted at baptisms and funerals. In baptism, we die with Christ and are raised with him to newness of life. Death is the completion of our baptism in which all things are revealed and we are forever united with God.

So the Paschal candle tells our story as Easter people. Ours includes a lamb, a cross and the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, A (Alpha) and Ω (Omega), reminiscent of what Jesus said, "I am the Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end" (Revelation 22:13).

MUSIC NOTES

You, Lord, Are Both Lamb and Shepherd was written by Sylvia Dunstan (1955-1993). Dunstan was born in Ontario. She earned a history degree from York College in Toronto and went on to earn her Master of Divinity and Theology from Emmanuel College at University of Toronto. She was ordained in the United Church of Canada. She served in a variety of positions including as a chaplain of a maximum security jail. She drafted the hymn on a commuter bus after a particularly bad day at the jail. The text discusses the many paradoxes of Christ as taken from the biblical narrative. Dunstan continued to be a pastor and write hymn texts until she was diagnosed with liver cancer. She died four months later at the age of 38.
