WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship. An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name on it, you may fill out a request form on the Information Table or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the nursery on the first floor (Room 204).

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, is available during the 11:00 service. Children who wish to participate will be dismissed after the Gospel Reading. They will meet in the narthex and be escorted to the lower-level.

Preparing for worship...Please silence cell phones upon entering the sanctuary. The need may arise for you to exit the service early. If so, please refrain from exiting during prayers, reading of scripture and choral anthems. Natural and appropriate exit points are during congregational hymns or sung responses. Your courtesy is appreciated. Also, as a kindness to fellow worshippers, please do not take flash photos during the worship service.

Ushering for today's worship: (8:00) Rick Cassetta, Rick Etling, Ken Pinkley (11:00) Earl & Juanita Bostic, Mark & Jennifer Everly, Ken Pinkley, Joe Seidler.

Flowers: To the glory of God and in celebration of Jody Romkey's birthday, given Kurt & Jody Romkey.

Liturgist: Jim Pettit

Sound Booth: (8:45) Joe Petrowsky (11:00) Bill Irvine

“I’ve Been Wondering…”
FAQs about Worship

What is a cantor?

Strictly speaking, a cantor is a leader of song. In the Jewish synagogue, as well as in the Christian church throughout the ages, the office of cantor is a specialized ministry that serves by leading the congregation in its worship. Whereas a soloist may sing as a part of worship, a cantor more specifically leads the congregation in prayer through song. For instance, the psalms are really prayers set to music. They come to us from the Jewish tradition and the Hebrews’ experience of God in the Old Testament. In worship, the psalms serve not as a distinct scripture reading, but as a prayerful response to the first reading. We pray the psalms in a variety of ways. Sometimes the congregation sings the psalm as a metrical (hymn) setting. At other times, we sing it as a responsorial setting where the cantor sings and the congregation joins in on a refrain. Regardless, the psalms are prayers we sing and the cantor serves to lead the congregation’s singing in a more relational and directive role than simply a “soloist.” A cantor’s role is not limited to leading the psalms. The cantor also leads the congregation’s other musical prayers, regardless of whether the congregation is also singing along.

What if I feel moved to receive Communion, but am not baptized?

The Lord’s Supper and Baptism are inseparable. If you feel called by the Holy Spirit to meet Christ in Communion, we believe that you are also being called to Baptism. We will not turn anyone away from the Lord’s Table, but we do invite you to speak to the pastor or a member of the session about Baptism as soon as possible.

For more information about the relationship between Baptism and the Lord’s Supper, see the Presbyterian Church (USA) Directory for Worship (especially W-2.4006 and W-2.4011) and Invitation to Christ: A Guide to Sacramental Practices, available online at www.pcusa.org/sacraments.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

QUILTERS

Mark your calendar for noon on January 16. Ann Hazelwood, renowned author and authority on quilts and quilting, will be our guest speaker. Invite friends and neighbors to a fabulous program, One Hundred Years of Quilts.

Each guest will have an opportunity to participate in the program. Right now, we need you to think about contributing small quilted items to include in a raffle that will be part of the program. So, as you are making placemats, a table runner, crib quilt, tote bag, lap quilt, book cover...you get the idea... as a Christmas gift, make a second one to raffle. Contact Mary Powers at marystahr@charter.net or 636-978-1135.

THANK YOU BRIAN!

At its meeting on Nov. 9, the Session accepted the resignation of Brian Parrish, Director of Music Ministries. In the two-and-a-half years that Brian has been with us his family has grown and he now feels the need to step back from some of his many activities to spend more time with them. Brian's last day with us will be Wednesday, December 16, the day of the choir's Christmas Program, Canticles in Candlelight, by Joseph Martin. The Session has hired Jan Parker to serve as the Interim Director of Music Ministries while it searches for a permanent replacement.

FLOWER CHART

The 2016 Flower Calendar is available in the Narthex. Sign up for flowers to celebrate a birthday or anniversary, or to remember a loved one. Flowers are $30.00 and may be taken home after the second service each week.

FEMALE CONNECTION

Turkey Feet & Holiday Gift Exchange

The Female Connection will be meeting on Thursday, November 19 at 7 PM in the Narthex at the Church. Please join us for an evening of fun, fellowship, snacks, and 'turkey feet' (a dominoes game normally known as 'chicken feet'). We will also have a holiday gift exchange that is for Thanksgiving or Christmas with a value from $6-8, examples include ornaments and candles. All women are invited to attend. Please bring a snack to share; drinks will be provided. For more information or questions, please contact Deb Mackin.

HANGING OF THE GREENS

Please join us on Sunday, November 22nd, after the Harvest of Talents for the Hanging of the Greens. Please help as we prepare our church and worship space for the season of Advent and Christmas. Pizza and drinks will be provided for lunch for all who help!

SCRIP CARDS

SCRIP cards work great if you are planning your Thanksgiving trip. There are hotels and car rental agencies available for purchase. We also have your everyday needs such as Walmart. And now is the time to start thinking about holiday gift cards. Order on Sunday and pick them up the following Sunday. A portion of each purchase comes back to the church as "free" money. Last year we collected over $1000 to use for the youth. If you have any questions, contact Jennifer Everly at 314/369-4398.
